

RURAL SURGERY

PAPER - II

8. What are the causes of gangrene? How would you treat a case of Buerger's Disease? 3+7
9. A 40 years male presents with painless hematuria and palpable lump in right lumbar region. Briefly discuss the differential diagnosis, investigation and treatment. 2+4+4
10. A 50 years old male presents with fresh bleeding per rectum and mass coming out during defaecation. 4+3+3
- a) Describe steps of clinical examination to find out cause of bleeding.
 - b) Briefly outline the investigations
 - c) How will you treat a second degree bleeding pile mass at 3 O'clock position?
