

NATIONAL BOARD OF EXAMINATIONS IN MEDICAL SCIENCES NEW DELHI

Dated: 07.08.2024

NOTICE

Subject: Denial of false social media claims on access to NEET-PG 2024 questions

1. It has come to the notice of NBEMS that some unscrupulous agents are making false and bogus claims by dint of social media platform viz. Telegram Messenger.
2. The cozeners are claiming to provide NEET-PG 2024 questions for the upcoming NEET-PG 2024 Examination in exchange for a considerable amount of money.
3. NBEMS has already registered a police complaint against such fraudsters and their accomplices for their attempt to befool NEET-PG aspirants in the name of providing questions of NEET-PG 2024 for a considerable sum of money.
4. By the present notice, NBEMS denies such false claims made by a Telegram channel titled "NEET-PG LEAKED MATERIAL" and cautions applicants for NEET-PG 2024 to not get allured/misled by such unscrupulous elements who are trying to befool them by claiming to have access to questions of upcoming NEET-PG 2024.
5. All NEET-PG 2024 candidates are assured that the question papers for NEET-PG 2024 are yet to be prepared by NBEMS and claims made on these social media platforms are bogus.
6. It is further advised that direct or indirect indulgence of anyone in any of such activities or publishing/ spreading rumors without verifying the facts shall be appropriately dealt with by NBEMS.
7. In case candidates are approached by any such unscrupulous agents/touts promising any such undue favour/ promising to provide question papers for NBEMS examinations through any spoofed emails/SMS or telephone call or forged documents or personally or through social media, the same may be reported to NBEMS through its Communication Web Portal: <https://exam.natboard.edu.in/communication.php?page=main> or to the local police for further investigation.

NBEMS